TABLE BASE FINISH:

Our Jacob Dining collection celebrates craftsmanship with sleek and modern style, bringing natural wood into more contemporary dining spaces. Tabletops made from solid oak and walnut are handcrafted by a community of Amish artisans—each specialized craftsman responsible for a specific task as each piece moves from workshop to workshop. Oiled, stained, and varnished finishes are applied by hand to achieve a high-gloss finish that accentuates the wood's natural beauty. Table bases, available in two chic shapes, feature a subtle, flat black finish to complement the tabletops' beautiful wood tones.
