rustic, chic accent seating

Luxuriously upholstered in rich, buttery soft leather complemented by smooth, red oak, our Rocco Scooped Barrel Chair cradles you in comfort and style. This chic accent chair is defined by the sleek lines of its exposed wooden frame—sloped arms wrap around the chair's seat, seamlessly curving forward, creating a versatile, contemporary feel. A rustic, multilayered wire-brushed finish enhances the red oak's natural grain and color variations, creating a nice juxtaposition of style and texture against the leather-covered cushions. Solid hardwood frames are reinforced for superior stability while tight cushions are generously padded with dense foam supported by heavy-duty elastic for a relaxing, resilient seat.
